Photoplays and Players

At the Princess.

De Loy's Tabloid Musical Comedy Company, which has been so popular with Palace patrons this week, will close its engagement tomorrow night. For the Sunday matinee, only, the management announces a return engagement of the Ches Davis Company, which appeared at the Palace last week.

The photoplay bill for tonight includes Lou Tellegen in "The Black Wolf," and Francis X. Bushman in "The Great Secret." Tomorrow Harold Lockwood and May Allison will be seen in "The Promise."

At the Palace.

Viola's cockatoos, monkeys, cats and dogs, an animal act that comes highly recommended, will be the vaudeville attraction at the Princess tonight and Saturday. Sunday Linton's Musical Revue, a highly commended company, will open a week's engagement.

Tonight's photoplay bill consists of Clara Kimball Young in "The Deep Purple," and Mrs. Vernon Castle in "Patria." Saturday's bill will be "The Money Mill," starring Dorothy Kelly.

BRITISH SHIP SUNK

WITHOUT WARNING

Washington, April 6.—Details of the torpedoing of the British steamer Canizaro without warning, with an American in the crew, reached the state department in a dispatch from Consul Hathaway at Hull, England. There was no loss of life.

NEW DRUG STORE OPENS TOMORROW

Milton Boyd and John Harrell Will Operate Pharmacy Purchased from D. H. Highfill.

Milton Boyd and John Harrell, who recently purchased the Highfill drug store, will open their doors for business tomorrow. In addition to the regular line of drugs and chemicals, a high-grade line of cigars and confectionery will be carried.

Mr. Boyd for the past five years has been connected with the Ringer Drug Company. He has established a lasting friendship with Ardmore people.

Mr. Harrell comes from a pioneer family of this section of the state. His father is one of the best known cattlemen of southern Oklahoma and "Johnnie" as he is better known to his friends, was reared on the ranch and lived there until a few years ago, when he came to Ardmore and established a confectionery business.
